

1

to . :

I must learn English modal verbs.

You should listen to your parents.

May I take your notebook till Sunday? ?

: must to learn; should to listen; may to take . .

2

/ :

I love my mother.

Where is your friend now? ?

Yesterday I met Tom and his wife.

: the my mother my the mother; the your friend your the friend.

, , , !

3

( ?) : +

ly:

Perfect perfectly , ,

Quick quickly ,

Rapid rapidly

Quiet quietly

Nice nicely

Easy easily

Beautiful beautifully

15

He entered the room quietly.

Tom did his homework perfectly fine!

( )!

Sue looks beautifully today.

4

Present Simple, if, as soon as, before, when, till, until, after, in case

, :

When I finish school, I will go to my grandparents in the countryside. ,

After you study your family tree, you will find out where you descend from. ,

, , .

Your elder brother will certainly help you if you ask

, .

5

:

+

+

+

+

Subject + predicate + direct object + indirect object + adverbial modifier

I sent you a letter last week.

.

I saw Mike in the club.

.

It was sunny yesterday.

.

,

,

,

.

.